BEAGLE PERSPECTIVES

for Judges, Breeders, Handlers & Groomers

Saturday, 21st September, 2019

Goldfields Show Grounds, Boeing Road West, Bedfordview, presented by

Jochen H. Eberhardt

Beagle Specialist & All Breed International FCI Judge of the world-renowned 'True Lines' Beagle & Lagotto Romagnolo Kennel in Germany.

Born in 1943 in Heidelberg, Germany. Studied Law, Engineering & Architecture in Heidelberg, Geneva (Switzerland) and Karlsruhe. Profession: Architect. Languages: English (active, fluent), French (active, somewhat rusty). Married with one son (36).

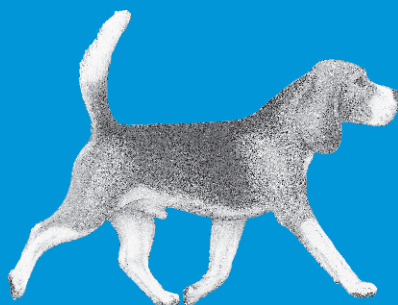

Started with Beagles in 1970 and bred the first Beagle litter in 1975 under the Kennel Affix 'True Line's (FCI)', shared by his wife, Silke. Together they raised 76 litters of Beagles between 1975 & 1994. Owned a Rhodesian Ridgeback. Added Border Terriers to the family in 1993 and bred two successful Border Terrier litters. In 2004 the Lagotto Romagnolo was added to our pack. Our successful Lagotti sired many champions at home, abroad and overseas. Bred four litters of Lagotti Romagnoli. Present pack consists of 7 Lagotti Romagnoli from 2 to 11 years of age. All our dogs have always lived with us in the house.

Have written numerous books - Beagle (2), Rhodesian Ridgeback (1) and Collie & Sheltie (1), as well as many and regular contributions to dog magazines.

In 1985 Jochen was elected Honorary Advisor to the German Kennel Club (Verband für das Deutsche Hundewesen e.V., VDH) on Breeding and Registration matters until 2004. Became a Member of the FCI Breeding Commission in 1998, a position held until 2004.

Started judging Beagles in 1974, went on to become a Specialist Judge for 30 Breeds by 1992 and was appointed as an All Breeds Judge in 1995.

Jochen has judged in excess of 64 000 dogs in 43 countries, appointments currently reach into 2019.
